Dear Mr. H. G. G. G.

After a visit to the

Min. of Ed. & strong representation from M/C Union, I am persuaded that it is right to call an extraordinary meeting of the Council at Ambleside on July 9th when the sub-committee is due to meet then then in any case.

The Min. has now made it public their proposals for expanding training colleges to meet the very serious shortage of teachers which is expected during the next ten years or more. The matter is very urgent as I have been told that the College might be prejudiced in any future negotiations if we did not explore the situation now + if possible later action:

From the point given your college the matter is also urgent as it is becoming increasingly difficult to find ~~so~~ well qualified - or even reasonably qualified - students ready + willing to pay the fees; the staffing position is also acute especially as far as the school is concerned - It is urgent that all these problems should be reviewed at least once + on the spot.

Miss H. will produce a memo which will ~~not~~ clearly ~~the points~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ way decisions should be reached.
indicate points on which decisions should be reached.

Dear Miss Hardcastle.

Thank you for the memorandum. I am dreadfully sorry that I can't come to the meeting at Ambleside next week.
I promised the B.P. & S. I expected that I would have a series of conferences for the time from July 8th - July 10th.
I shall not be back until July 11th.
I write a letter of apology to Mr Wallis.

I am sure that an immediate affirmation should be made to the Committee - to find out whether a grant would be available & if so, under what conditions. Quite possibly the conditions might be such that the Council would not be able to do willing to accept and grant as was offered. But I should be disposed to think that this is the first time of approval.

Whether you should also immediately approach the Local Authority, is a difficult question.
Possibly the best thing would be to wait & see what the Director has to say.

Despite the difficulty of staffing, I think it would not be wise at this moment to consider making Fairfield simply a Junior School.
I think the seven school serves a very useful purpose. And I should not feel too certain that if the school were "de-capitalised"

If an approval is to be made to the Ministry. you will have to decide whether this is to be made, in detail, by a written memorandum, or by a ~~relatively~~ brief letter - followed by a personal interview.

If there is to be a personal interview, I would like that you would be included in the delegation. Quite possibly, I don't think this should be left to H^{rs} Waller on her own & I should doubt whether any other member of the Council knows enough

I am very & miss the not really be able to do much any rate - you have my sympathy

Dear Mary,

Your letter does indeed convey a depressing outlook and one that must be very worrying to you, as to all of us. I am very grateful that you have put all these facts so succinctly, but I still feel that it would have been a great help to receive them and then to have had a fairly representative and understanding Council Meeting in London. There is nothing in your letter as far as I can see which will be helped by our being at Ambleside.

Each item in your carefully written document should be discussed bit by bit, and as far as I can judge the ideas put forward for their solution by Cedric Glover, e.g. would really make the position more complicated and more difficult. I believe myself that the safest procedure would be No.2 on the last page of your document.

As regards entries of students in 1959, I don't think you need have any hesitation in taking them, even if they were obliged to leave before completing their three years training. There would always be, as far as one can see, openings for them in many directions.

You will be sorry to hear that I have my own big problems. A bombshell reached me this morning in the shape of the resignation of Mrs. Kealey. The first letter I opened was one from Mrs. Ewen saying how happy she was to leave the office in the excellent hands of Mrs. Kealey who has proved herself most valuable. The second letter I opened was one from Mrs. Kealey telling me that she was obliged to join her husband in Nairobi at the end of September. Everything seemed to be going so well in spite of the fact that we must find fresh offices and that I am naturally very sad at this occurrence, even though I have already heard of a possible successor.

I am very sorry to hear that your Bursar is leaving,

Yours affectionately
H. Franklin

Dear Miss Hardcastle,

Thank you for the memorandum. I am dreadfully sorry that I cant come to the meeting at Ambleside next week. I promised the Bishop of Stafford that I would take a series of confirmations for him from July 7th - 10th and shall not be back until July 11th. I wrote a letter of apology to Mrs Walton.

I am sure that an immediate approach should be made to the Ministry to find out whether a grant would be available and, if so, under what conditions. Quite possibly the conditions might be such that the Council would not be able or willing to accept such grant as was offered. But I should be disposed to think that this is the first line of approach.

Whether you should also and concurrently approach the Local Authority is a difficult question. Perhaps the best thing wouldbbe to wait and see what the Ministry has to say.

Despite the difficulty of staffing, I think it would not be wise at this moment to consider making Fairfield simply a Junior School. I think the Senior School serves a very useful purpose. And I should not feel too certain that if the school were "de-capitated" it would survive as a Junior School.

If an approach is to be made to the Ministry you will hhave to decide whether this is to be made, in detail, by a written memorandum, or by a relatively brief letter, followed by a personal intervaw.

If there is to be a personal interview, I should hope that you would be included in the deputation.

I am sorry to miss the meeting, though I fear I should not really be able to do much to help in solving the great difficulties you have to face. At anyrate you have my sympathy.

Yours sincere

R. Brook.

My Dear Mary,

The first batch has arrived safely - I will post on to Mr Rodfrey as quickly as I can -

I had a bad accident in the garden last week & felt it would be quite impossible to do the long journey to Amble-side - I am really all right now, but still doubt whether

I could have managed it -
 I did muddle the dates & thought the meeting was today! Anyway, what could I do? I flew to the last urgent meeting & merely covered an extra chair!!

1) I think it a good moment to ask for Grant.

2) I doubt we'll get it unless prepared to "put up" a good

Dear Miss Hardcastle,

I would just like to say how much I appreciated your kind hospitality while visiting Ambleside. The hotel looked after me very well and I was able to escort Miss Cholmondeley and Miss Lambert as far as Preston. We had an American couple in the compartment with whom to wile away the time!

Although it must have been disappointing for you not to have more members of the Foundation present, I myself thought that it was a fully representative meeting and that the decisions were considered ones. I was glad to know that Miss Cholmondeley and Miss Lambert and Lady Elizabeth also felt that they had not been rushed into any decision. I asked Mrs. Walton to let me have a copy of the letter to the Director of Education for information, and if there is anything else I can do before I leave for the Congress in Canada, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Yours very sincerely,

Vincent Knowles

Dear Mrs. Franklin,

Thank you so much for your letter. Please forgive me for not replying to it immediately but, as you may imagine, we have been exceedingly busy with the end of term last Wednesday and the Council meeting on the same day.

Mrs. Walton will be writing to you about the meeting so I will not refer to the decisions made. It was a very useful and representative meeting, although small.

I am indeed sorry for your difficulties with the P.E.U. It seems to me quite extraordinary that Mrs. Kealey should not have known when she accepted the post at the office, that there was a possibility of her having to return to Kenya.

I hope you yourself are going to have a little holiday now. I expect you will be going to Ireland before very long?

We have had a good term inspite of the very rainy weather. The Third Years students were very sad to leave and we were very sad to say goodbye to them. We are now busy preparing the houses for the summer let.

I shall be here until July 25th when I am going to Miss Eugent Thorpe's school to speak to her Parent's Gathering. I shall be back here again in August for a week before I go away for a further holiday.

Yours affectionately,

Dear Mr. Glover,

Thank you very much for your long and interesting letter. Both Mrs. Walton and I were most grateful to you for having taken so much trouble and thought over the matter.

Mrs. Walton is writing to you about the meeting so I will say nothing here, except that it went in rather a different way from the line you have taken. I think if you saw some of the students who come from working class homes, you would realise what good material they produce. We should certainly like to have more students of graduate ability but I cannot really see a University taking us up in the way you suggested which I have got a Principal with degrees

Yours very sincerely,

Principal.

Dear Min Hardcastle

Thank you very much for ^{all} your letters & ^{phone} conversations.

I was ^{glad} ~~sorry~~ that you were ~~unable~~ to be present at the Emergency Meeting, ^{and} but I was glad to have your suggestions, and interested in your comments. Your memo. was n't at a master piece.

Fortunately, although it was a small meeting, we had a quorum and as soon as possible the minutes will be circulated, ^{having been carefully edited} by M.H. & M.G.W.

The unanimous decision was that there should be an approach to the L.E.A. Westmorland. This will not commit us, but will serve as a valuable exploratory move. It was strongly felt that this first step was necessary, firstly on account of the urgency of the situation, and secondly because without it, we cannot know what is entailed.

This decision to approach the L.E.A.

I am most grateful for your help and co-operation. ~~That~~ includes bed, lovely meals, sherry & other minor delights.

Dear Mr. Clarke.

I hear from Miss Handcastle that you, your chairman, & Vice-Chairman could meet some of us on Tues. Aug: 12th at Elm Moor Ambleside at 2.15 p.m. if that time suits you.

It is most kind of you to do this & I am grateful to you for your help, as I feel that this informal discussion is a most important preliminary.

I have written to Sir Clement Jones our Vice chairman & asked him to come, & also to Bishop Brooks who lives in Garsdale. I do not think it would be possible to get word of other knowledgeable members of our Council during August & at such short notice; but he knows the Manchester representative can come, Miss Handcastle of course will be there, & I am very much hoping to be able to disentangle myself from family & holiday commitments & get away for the two nights.

I think that if we could meet him meeting early in the afternoon, we could have some discussion first, then go round the grounds. I fear that only external viewing is possible at that time as the college is always let during the summer holidays.
 Nevertheless, it will serve to give the some idea of what there is.

We should be obliged if the with an have tea with us after seeing the grounds, & during or after tea, we could have further discussion if necessary.

I am grateful to you for this chance of a further understanding of the situation for both sides. I look forward to the meeting on Aug. 12th
